SUBJECT.

Laying down certain rules regarding Conveyance charges admissible to lent officers during the Dasara and other Ceremonial occasions.

1. To the F.A. Resident No. Pol. 635 of 2-2-10.

Requests that the Concurrence of the Honble the Resident may be obtained for modifying the arrangements referred to in the correspondence ending with Mr. Rennie's letter No. 311 of 22-1-1907 so that free conveyance or the actual charge of hiring a conveyance not exceeding the cost of conveying their own carriages by rail may be given to lent officers in all cases etc.

2. From the F.A. Resident. No. 942 of 15-2-10. States that there is no objection to the above change being made.

3. To the Comptroller & all lent officers of & above the grade of Dy. Commr. G. R. S. 58 No. 4-5184-90 of 3-4-10. Lays down certain rules regarding the Conveyance charges admissible to lent officers during the Dasara & other Ceremonial occasions.

Extracts from SVA file 82 of 1907-8 Sls (3 & 4) — Regarding the claim of Mr. M. Muthanna, Const. of Forests, to the charge of Rs 32-4-0 incurred by him in taking a carriage and two horses by rail to Mysore on the occasion of the Birthday Festivities of H. H. the Maharaja in June 1907

① Mr. Muthanna claims from Govt.
the railway fare paid by him for taking his carriage and two horses on the occasion of H.H.'s Birthday in June 1907 and the case has long been pending disposal.

② ~~Govt~~ Lent Officers going to Mysore for the Birthday races and Durbars are, under the orders of the Govt of India, given only actual travelling expenses and no daily allowance for halt at Mysore. The denial of daily allowance is obviously on the ground that the Officers, being treated as either guests at table or supplied free with 'lavajama', accommodation and conveyance are not put to any expense and that there is therefore no claim for any re-imbursment in the form of a daily allowance.

② On the occasion of the Darara, a lent officer enjoying only one of ~~the~~ the three privileges of a guest (food, ~~conf~~ conveyance & accommodation free)
is given full daily allowance;
if he enjoys two of them, is given half the daily allowance and if he is allowed all the three he gets no daily allowance.

④ There is no reason why the same rule should not be applied to the case of halts on occasions of H-Hi Birthdays Mr.
Muttanna, it is believed in common with other native officers, was provided on the occasion with free accommodation and lavajama and he may therefore be given half d.a. for the period of halt at Mysore under the authority of the Residency letter dated 22nd Jan 1907. One of Mr. Muttanna's reasons for claiming the conveyance charge is that he drew no d.a. for the period of his stay at Mysore. If he was provided with free accommodation and lavajama and is now given half d.a. because he was not given the third privilege of a guest viz free conveyance, he cannot in addition claim charges for taking his conveyance to Mysore.

⑤ The Govt of India have distinctly stated that such charges are inadmissible on these occasions. It is true that the Mysore Govt is now vested with the power of sanctioning conveyance charges under art 1000 C. S. R., but as the case of Mr. Muttanna in question does not satisfy the conditions mentioned in the authorised explanations of art 1000 C. S. R., the claim cannot be passed by exercising the powers vested in them.

⑥ The solution seems therefore to be to give Mr. Muttanna half d.a. for his halt at Mysore and refuse to pass the conveyance claim which is not admissible under the C. S. R.

⑦ Mr. Muttanna states that he took his conveyance to Mysore as he "was given to understand that one could not be ~~here~~ hired there". It is believed that invited officers are generally ~~at~~ supplied with either Govt or hired conveyances.

Whether Mr. Muttanna was not given a conveyance and had therefore to take his own or whether he did not ask for one at all, though he might have got one if he had applied for it, is also a point that arises for consideration and this may not perhaps be pursued as the officer was actually put to expense by taking ~~his~~ his conveyance and he may be given what is allowable under the rules irrespective of whether he could or could not have been provided with a Govt. or hired conveyance. The matter is more than a year old and it may not now be possible to ascertain if he could or could not have been furnished with this easement.

If such an officer enquires beforehand from the Officer in charge of arrangements for guests whether he will be supplied with a free conveyance and is told in reply that it will not be possible to supply him with one then he is entitled to be reimbursed to the full extent of the amount he may have to spend on conveyance hire, provided the amount is not unreasonable. If he takes his own horses and carriages and the cost is not more than the reasonable conveyance hire stated above the conveyance charges of the horses and carriages may be paid. If after reasonable enquiry the officer learns that he will ~~not~~ neither be given a free carriage by the State nor be able to secure a carriage for hire the charges for taking his own horses and conveyance must be paid by the State even if the amount exceeds reasonable conveyance hire.

(10) The State being under obligation to supply conveyance to the guest, to give him an allowance of half his daily allowance and leave him to find a conveyance is not fair. Such a course militates against the Indian notion of hospitality.

The exercise of the power in the disposal of this case would result in a retrospective application of the Govt of India Order, but such application seems to be immaterial and the Durbar may dispose of the claim under the power since vested in them.

In the left order below (need for issue), nothing has been mentioned about lent officers' daily Allowance on occasions of H H the Maharaja's Birthday & the functions connected therewith. No. G. 5184-90—G. M. 228-09-3, DATED BANGALORE, 5TH APRIL 1910.

ORDER THEREON.—Under the rules contained in the above Order, lent officers, who get any two of the three conveniences* usually provided for State Guests, are allowed only one-half the ordinary daily allowance, the full daily allowance being granted when only one convenience is provided by the State.
